

Please do not allow the further centralization of control of multimedia organizations. This is an obscene concentration of power, a manipulation of the public mind and spirit, and the most dangerous attack on our democracy which I can imagine.
Thank you.